Copyright Notice

The University makes e-resources available to Alumni who have registered as users of the Strathclyde Alumni Online Community. Alumni are reminded that copyright subsists in the e-resources. The University’s licence agreements cover non-commercial use only which means that you are permitted to access and use the e-resources strictly for your own personal study and research only and not for any commercial gain.

Except as provided for by copyright law, no further copying, storage or distribution (including by e-mail) is permitted without the consent of the copyright holder. You agree to comply with any additional terms of use imposed by the copyright holder of a particular e-resource provided as part of the service where you are notified of the existence of such terms.

In the event of failure to comply with the provisions of this Copyright Notice the University reserves the right to suspend or terminate any registered user’s access to Strathclyde Alumni Online Community, or parts of it as described in the Strathclyde Alumni Online Community Terms and Conditions of use.
